Urban Farm Tour

11am-4pm in Vallejo

Presented by

The Institute of Urban Homesteading

Come see what established home-scale urban farmers are up to and what is possible on a small, medium, large, or extra large urban lot.

You will see fruit & vegetable gardens, composting systems, rabbits, goats, bees, greywater and more, plus you will get to sample some of what these urban farmers are producing..

How it Works

Join our mailing list at iuhoakland.com and we'll send you details the week before the event. Once you have the locations, plan your itinerary and bike, drive or walk yourself there. Visit as many of the sites as you have time or interest for.

Guided tours with tasting and Q & A are lead by the farmers once per hour on the hour . Each tour lasts about 45 minutes.

10am-4pm, last tour at 3pm

You can pay as you go at each site, or support the tour by paying in advance, allowing you entrance to all the sites.

Pay as you go option

$5 per person, per location. Kids under 12, $3. No one turned away for lack of funds.

Purchase In advance option

Pay full price for a ticket--or give a little more and get a day pass good for entry to all sites, plus a chance to win valuable door prizes!
