Warmest Greetings from Angel Heart, the Public Relations Officer for Sacred Sites Protection & Rights of Indigenous Tribes.

We are writing you today to share with you the arrival of the Spiritual Walkers of the Longest Walk 4 in Vallejo, California on December 16-19, 2013. Kay Flavell of New Pacific Studio will be hosting the Longest Walkers. Sacred Sites Protection & Rights of Indigenous Tribes is grateful for the generous donation. www.newpacificstudio.org.nz

The Longest Walk 4: Return to Alcatraz was initiated by those on the original The Longest Walk in 1978. It began on July 15, 2013 in Washington D.C. and will arrive at Alcatraz on December 21, 2013. The purpose of this Walk will be to reaffirm the heart of Traditional Tribal Sovereignty rooted in Ceremony and land based spiritual relationships. We call on all Indigenous & Earth Peoples to come and support this Walk. For more information please call (202) 436-6576 or visit www.returntoalcatraz.com

We are reaching out for you in hopes that you would be willing to provide your show of support and/or a monetary donation for the longest walkers during their stay in Vallejo. Your generous donation would be most appreciated and would assist with the costs for food and necessities for the Spiritual Walkers/Longest Walk 4. In the creation of our Press Release, we would be honored to make mention of your establishment & its help to the Longest Walk 4.

Thank you for your time & consideration. We are happy to be able to reach out to you, our friend in the local community. Please feel free to contact us as soon as you can. We apologize for the time sensitivity of this issue.

Sincerely,
Angel Heart/Public Relations Officer

Vallejo, CA. - Sacred Sites Protection & Rights of Indigenous Tribes announces the arrival of the Spiritual Walkers of the Longest Walk 4 in Vallejo, California. The Longest Walk 4 will be at Sogorea Te, Native American Sacred Site located in Glen Cove on Wednesday, December 18, 2013; time to be announced.

Chochenyo/Ohlone Activist Corrina Gould, Organizer of the Committee to Save Sogorea Te/Protect Glen Cove, held a spiritual occupation at the sacred site that began on Sunday, April 14th, 2011 and continued for 109 days. This was done for the preservation and protection of the ancestors & for the preservation of sacred land. A community show of support for the Longest Walk 4 on Wednesday, December 18, 2013 at Sogorea Te is requested & appreciated. Michael Lane & Sharon Heta of the Longest Walk 4 will be providing a discussion. Potluck dishes & monetary donations are appreciated and welcomed.
